Mr. Yates L. Holland

Principal

As you browse through the pages of this yearbook from time to time, it should always help you to relive many of the happy and worthwhile experiences which you are having during the school year. It should always remind you of the swiftness of the passing of time which produces rapid changes that will affect your lives for many years.

As times change, we must also change to meet the new problems that will face us. Adequate education will help to prepare you for the new challenges.

I sincerely hope that the preparation which you are making now will help you to meet the many problems which you must face and solve in a satisfactory manner.

Very truly yours,

Yates L. Holland
